Who was that masked
woman?

We thought it was funny anyway—those of us at the “masked woman’s” table.

It seems that President Kay Williams had hoped to report on the most recent ADDC convention, held in Lafayette, Louisiana. To assist her, she asked the other convention attendees from our club to dress up or to share some of their mementos from Mardi Gras—D&D Style. When she was originally asked, the “masked woman” did not think she would be attending the Annual Business Meeting. She later discovered that she was able to go. Meanwhile back at the President’s office, Kay determined that our luncheon already had too much info packed into a short span of time; she felt that something had to give. Her executive decision was to nix the convention report. Somewhere in the shuffle, President Kay forgot to tell the “masked woman” that the agenda had been changed. Yep—you guessed it—she was the only member attired Mardi Gras style.

The Tulsa Oil Drop

Rebecca Helt, Division Order Supervisor for WPX, was our guest speaker at the September luncheon meeting.

Rebecca is a Certified Division Order Analyst and Registered Professional Landman with more than 34 years' experience. She has served her member organizations, NADOA and SADOA, on the board of directors and as President, and received the distinction of Analyst of the Year in 2009.

From Mineralweb.com a Division Order is in force after the completion of a well and is an "instrument which sets forth the proportional ownership in produced hydrocarbons, including crude oil, natural gas, and NGL's. Sometimes the Division Order is referred to as a division of interest. More often than not, a single well or lease will have multiple owners. In fact, it's not uncommon to have hundreds of parties owning an interest in a single well."

Rebecca shared her passion for these land and royalty owners calling them the "greatest asset any company has." Imagine the loss of credibility, good will, and costs of improperly distributing a well's revenue to these owners – it's in everyone's best interest to get it right.

Over the span of her career, Rebecca shared that much has changed. Division Orders were once hand written or even scribbled on a piece of paper and an owner could have deeded a portion of his mineral rights to a neighbor for a loaf of bread – which was not uncommon during the Great Depression. Today's analysts must be computer-savvy, comply with state statutes and federal laws, understand the deregulation of natural gas, comprehend the entire oil and gas lease (which can be as long as 60 pages), and be aware of Sarbanes-Oxley reporting requirements.

Oil and gas leases involve all types of owners – Royalty Interest, Overriding Royalty Interest, Working Interest, Non-participating Royalty Interest, and Carried Working Interest each with unique decimal percentages of ownership. Researching all the owners in a section line has brought Rebecca much joy over the years. She treats these owners as family, has grieved upon hearing of a death from someone she personally got to know, and considers locating those who've fallen into suspense as a personal mission. She shared about finding an owner who had moved to California and was undergoing cancer treatment. With the $90,000 that had been held in suspense and would now be released, this owner was able to pay a significant portion to cover medical expenses which was game-changing for the family.

Rebecca also commented on the ONRR, Office of Natural Resources Revenue, whose mission statement is "to collect, disburse, and verify Federal and Indian energy and other natural resource revenues on behalf of all Americans." Their website states that this effort is "one of the federal government's greatest sources of non-tax revenues." Their oversight of the industry has at times, created a tenuous working relationship with producers related to reporting deadlines, but operators are dedicated to working through these issues, avoiding penalties and sharing mutual knowledge for the benefit of the entire oil and gas industry.

Membership Meeting Minutes September 10, 2014 By Vicki Barnes, Secretary

The Tulsa Oil Drop

President Kay Williams welcomed attendees to the September Membership Meeting of the Desk and Derrick Club of Tulsa. Kay introduced our speaker and guests.

Our guest speaker today was Rebecca Helt. Rebecca is a Certified Division Order Analyst with WPX. She will be more formally introduced later. Other guests were Ann Feragen guest of Traci Woller, Amy Clayborn, Galen Watts. Wendy Maxey was a guests of Dorothy Lenhart and Robbie Kilgore was a guest of Dee Jansen. We welcome each of you and hope to see more of you in the future.

The Desk and Derrick Club of Tulsa is a non-profit organization, and our purpose is to promote the educational and professional development of individuals employed in, or affiliated with, the petroleum, energy and allied industries. If any of you would like more information on our local club, please visit our website, tulsadandd.net, and you can find information about our international organization, The Association of Desk and Derrick Clubs, at their website, addc.org.

Kay presented some detailed results of our recent survey. A copy was on each table. Board has reviewed these results and we will be implementing some of your suggestions throughout the remainder of the year. Board members are available to answer any questions the members may have. There were several members who indicated an interest in serving on a Committee. Since the survey was completely anonymous, we ask those members to come to next month's meeting where we will have committee sign-up sheets for that purpose. The Board appreciates all of the participants and we wish to thank you for giving your candid opinions and suggestions.

The invocation was given by Mary Williams. President Kay invited our guests and then our club members to start the buffet line and enjoy the meal.

AFTER LUNCH: Madame Parliamentarian Susan Cook advised that a quorum was present, and the business meeting was called to order at 11:58 pm.

PRESIDENT REPORT: Kay Williams, our President informed us that our Treasurer's Report was presented to the Board of Directors on Tuesday, September 2nd, was approved and the report will be filed for review. Any member who would like a full copy of the report can contact Laura Louser. She will be happy to provide a copy.

2014 Convention is just a couple of weeks away and in the business portion of our meeting we will vote on the Delegate and Alternate to represent the Club.

The Black Gold Golf Tournament is October 6th and Kathy Farris reported that we have 31 teams filled, leaving 5 still open.

October 8th is our Orientation/Elections meeting, which is a closed meeting for members only. We strongly encourage our members to plan to be at this meeting to cast your vote for our 2015 Board of Directors.

Amy Claybourn presented our Energy Tidbit today.

Education - The Key to Our Future

Membership Meeting Minutes September 10, 2014 (continued)

The Tulsa Oil Drop

PROGRAM: Kris Russell introduced our speaker. Rebecca Helt, with WPX Energy, is a Certified Division Order Analyst with more than 34 years of Division Order experience. She shared some of her experiences in dealing with big government entities like the ONRR and her personal relationship with the landowners that she gets to know. After the presentation, Kris thanked her and presented a gift for speaking, and noted that a donation will be given in her name to the ADDC Education Trust. This Trust grants scholarships to full-time students pursuing a degree in a major field of study related to the petroleum, energy or allied industries. It also awards scholarships to Desk and Derrick members continuing their education to better their careers within the industry.

NEW BUSINESS: The Club needs to vote on sending a Delegate and Alternate to the 2014 ADDC Convention. Jill Klein made the motion that our Club send President Kay Williams as Delegate to the Convention in Lafayette, September 2014 and Vice President Dorothy Lenhart as Alternate. This delegate and alternate will attend uninstructed. This motion was seconded by Val Bode and the membership unanimously approved.

A special presentation was made to Kay Meyerhoff. Over recent years, you may have been asked to pose for a picture at our luncheons or special events to be published in the monthly bulletin. Most likely the photographer was Kay Meyerhoff. Kay has decided it is time to pass the camera to another member. Kay was recognized for her dedication to our club and given a gift in appreciation for all she has done. It was announced that Robert Watts has agreed to be the new official photographer.

Our Membership Chair, Jill Klein, acknowledged and pinned Traci Woller as our most current new member. Jill held a membership drive to challenge us to bring in new members. From July 9 to September 10, the person who brings the most new members into the club will receive $100 gift by cash or check. Jonathan Slay was our winner of the membership drive. He introduced LeAnn Pearson, Lead Accountant at Laredo Petroleum to the club and she has submitted her application for membership.

Sarah Kuegel, our Education Committee chairperson announced that she has a few packets with the "Bit of Fun Energy Activity Book" that are available to members for distribution to their neighborhood school.

In closing, Kay reminded us that Education is the Key to our Future!
There being no further business, this meeting is now adjourned at 12:54 pm.

The Tulsa Oil Drop

President's Letter

Dear Members,

I must make this month's letter short and sweet, as our Editor is once again waiting on me. With work obligations and preparation for convention, I have procrastinated on typing up this letter. How do I find the words to express the importance of attending our October Orientation/Elections meeting? Let me start by saying, thank you to everyone who has stepped up to make this meeting an event in itself. Many of you, especially the newer members, may not know what all goes into the preparation of our meetings, and in particular, our October and November ones.

October is dedicated to making sure our members have a firm base knowledge of our Tulsa Club, our Association and the roles that we play in furthering positive support of this wonderful industry that brings us all together. It is our goal that Orientation will bring you a better understanding of that.

GREATER KNOWLEDGE – GREATER SERVICE

This is the month we have our elections for the year to come, and VP Dorothy Lenhart and her Nominating Committee, Virginia Calhoun and Christy Hinton, have been hard at work finding an excellent slate of candidates for our ballot. Once again, I want to urge ALL MEMBERS to make every effort to attend the meeting and cast your vote. We will also have Committee sign-up sheets available for you to select what role you will play in educating, planning and serving our organization in 2015.

November is our Industry Appreciation Luncheon (IAL) and you won't want to miss the announcement of Who, What, When and Where? The Board is VERY EXCITED about the speaker and program and we hope to have flyers available for the membership to start inviting their guests.

As always, if you have any interesting articles, industry information, seminar or event reviews or pictures for the bulletin, please get them to our Editor, Susan Cook, ASAP. susan@elsonoil.com and watch for more exciting news in the next edition of The Tulsa Oil Drop.

Education is the Key!

Region VI Director's Newsletter

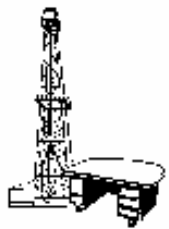

Dear Members,

Congrats to the Red Earth Club for winning the Special Achievement Award, please read all the details on the website. Congrats to the Great Bend Club for winning several AIMEEs .

Don't forget the challenge I made, during March's Desk and Derrick Awareness Month, present a slide show to your members and guests. This slideshow should feature highlights from Region and Convention meetings and give everyone an overview on the excitement and experiences we all love so much. It should cover everything from the registration booklet to the field trips and seminars. After the presentation of the slide show leave time for questions about each meeting and the benefits of attending one or both of these events. By showing them our enthusiasm through the slide show and our comments afterwards, members and guests could feel the excitement that we have for attending all Desk & Derrick functions.

If you have never served as a Regional Rep. you should look them over and step up and serve. Anna Lewis- McBeth is 2015 Regional VI Director and will be glad to answer questions about being a rep. Christina Forth Matthews was elected as Treasurer and Mark Loch was elected Secretary. Mark is a member of the Red Earth Club from Region VI.

October 2014

Convention has come and gone but I am sure the enthusiasm and energy generated will carry forward! All the planning of the last three years came to fruition; it was an awesome experience and the Lafayette Club members, and Kathy Martin in particular, are to be commended for a job well done. They provided us with educational opportunities, a host of dynamic keynote speakers and opportunities to connect and network with fellow members. The hotel management and staff went above and beyond as well. They were friendly and took every opportunity to make sure we were taken care of.

It is no secret that when Desk and Derrick members get together, we learn, network and share. At this year's Convention, we had 386 attendees including 63 first-timers; we hope this will not be their last convention. By the way, I wonder if anyone thought to warn the first timers that Conventions are addictive? Surely by now they know that! I hope the Convention attendance numbers are indicative of where our organization is heading.

The newly elected 2015 Association Board, under the leadership of Lori Landry, is ready to work hard on behalf of the membership. Congratulations to the 2015 ADDC Officers elected at the Saturday business meeting. They are an outstanding group and, along with the seven Regional Directors, will lead this association with skill, commitment and enthusiasm. They are:

President	Lori Landry
President Elect	Connie Harrison
Vice President	Maggi Franks
Secretary	Mark Loch
Treasurer	Christina Forth-Matthews

As we begin winding up 2014, clubs will begin holding their annual meetings and elections. Many of you have stepped forward to take on a leadership role in your club, your region or at the Association level, and I can honestly tell you from experience that your contributions and efforts will be repaid tenfold.

Kathy Johnson, San Antonio Club President, sent an email to her members and it was so eloquently written and heart felt that I wanted to share with the entire membership:

"One thing that was very apparent and a constant theme of the 63rd ADDC Convention was that Desk and Derrick will only continue to succeed if we are all involved to the best of our abilities. We often think that someone else will take care of the needs of Desk and Derrick, but in reality we have seen an overwhelming decrease in participation within each club. We must remember that the focus is to educate the communities in which we live about our industry. By doing so, we help promote and foster a positive image in all that oil does for us. Attached is the list of committees that we need participation in. Would you each please consider serving on one of these committees? It is an excellent way to learn more about Desk and Derrick and it is a rewarding way to give back." I couldn't have said it any better myself!

Because of the timing of Convention this year, I am not able to provide a comprehensive recap as I would have liked this month. However, I promise to give a thorough report in next month's letter.

Members: you are the backbone of this organization and our greatest asset; we could not accomplish what we do without your involvement. I appreciate the warm wishes and support that I received from members throughout the Association. The friendships and kindness are one of the most amazing aspects of our organization. From the bottom of my heart, thank you for all that you do toward furthering our motto: Greater Knowledge, Greater Service!

Dear Fellow ADDC Members,

Another Convention is in the history books and Lafayette Club - ALL Region III clubs – and the ADDC Board did an outstanding job this year. We had an amazing turnout for Convention. The room where we held the Member Recognition Luncheon was filled to capacity!

Thanks to the following for their help throughout the year:

André Martin, ADO Manager, for printing certificates and providing awards pins
Wayne Ammon, Website Manager, for posting letters and forms on the website in a timely manner
Lori Landry, ADDC Board Contact, for encouragement and advice, as well as representation of the committee to the Board
Region Reps: Kay Hillabold, Stephanie Coggins, Connie Harrison, Marilyn Marshall (who also served as co-chairman), Susan Cook, Barb Schaefer, and Ursula Jonasson

Congratulations to all of our entrants! The 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners listing is posted on the ADDC website in the October Committee letters section and will be included in the October Insight.

NOTE TO CLUB PRESIDENTS: The Desk and Derrick Journal (DDJ) editors are asking that every club with a 1st place AIMEE supply an electronic version of the articles and program summaries. The 1st place winners will be included in an upcoming issue of the DDJ so that all of the Association can learn from and enjoy the creative talents of our members.

I will be mailing out the final judges' score sheets to presidents of the clubs that did not pick them up after the luncheon.

It's not too early to begin selecting your entries for the 2015 Contest. The materials printed and the programs, seminars, and field trips that take place from December 1, 2013 through November 30, 2014 are eligible for next year's contest.

Education - The Key to Our Future

The Tulsa Oil Drop

Editor's Letter

I've never been too fond of letters/reports/editorials that make reference to the weather or the time of year it happens to be. The idea seemed to strike me as a way of "filling" the page. But I've got to admit that I do love the Fall season—not just because of the time of year it is or the coolness in Oklahoma or the beautiful fall foliage.

It's also a time of recommitment to Desk and Derrick. For those members lucky enough to have attended ADDC Convention; you know what I mean. One can begin to feel complacent about our membership at any stage of the game—whether you are a newly drafted member or a hall of famer. We need to know that we matter—that we make a difference by performing a task or by encouraging another or by attending Board Meetings, etc.

So I want to thank you for letting me feel your appreciation at our Orientation today. Equally important, I want to thank you for your participation in the program, for your attendance at Board Meetings on my behalf as a member of the Tulsa Desk and Derrick Club. Thanks for making the meetings educational and fun. Thanks for stepping outside your box to tackle a leadership role. Thanks for wanting to be a member. Thanks for sharing your passion. Thanks for mentoring a new person.

See what we can do when we work together as a team? Go Team Black and Gold!
