Presenting
"Email and Web Security"

Today using email and the web securely is harder than ever. With groups running frauds such as impersonation, fake links and redirection, being aware of what you are doing is critical for all users both at home and at work. This presentation will help you identify when something is safe or suspect and what to do when you encounter these items.

Steve Kendall is a Tulsa native, who worked as the Director of AI Development for Wang Laboratories, then as part of the Senior Management team at Microsoft, before returning to Tulsa to become an IT instructor.

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

JANUARY 2019

We are Tulsa Energy! Desk and Derrick professionals are working to bring energy in many forms to the communities where we live. Tulsa is a progressive city comprised of many diverse industries. Tulsa's beginnings as "The Oil Capital of the World" puts Energy at the top of that list. Desk and Derrick is ready to educate members, colleagues, schools, and communities on the energy industries and their roles.

In 2019, the members of the Tulsa club will benefit from educational speakers, field trips, industry events, ADDC meetings and convention, networking, and more. Many volunteers have already been hard at work starting the planning, the Board of Directors is transitioning smoothly. I can't speak highly enough of the volunteers that make sure everything is completed.

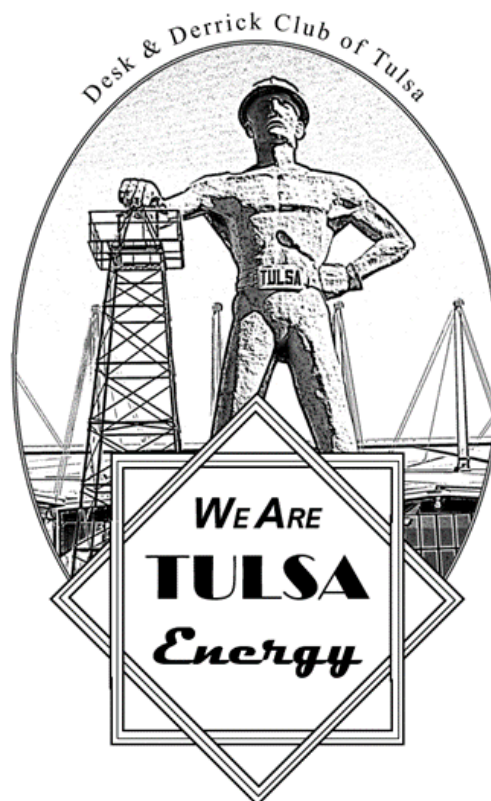

Your employers will be proud of your Desk and Derrick involvement. The steps you take with the organization shows your willingness to be educated on all facets of the industry. You will network with professionals at other companies that will be just a phone call away should you have a question in your job. You will meet the speakers at the meetings that may also be a contact you will find useful in the future. You will get the chance to reach out and help members of the community.

Look forward to a fun-filled year as the club grows. Speaking on behalf of the Board of Directors, we all look forward to working with each of you.

Sincerely,

Jill Klein

January 2019

Happy New Year to all of you! I wish each one of you a happy, healthy and prosperous 2019. I am so excited to serve ADDC as the 2019 President. Your 2019 Board of Directors is ready and willing to serve you, the members, in the year ahead and each feels honored to represent you in the coming year.

The Board for this year is: Philana Thompson, West Region Director; Connie Bass, Central Region Director; Evelyn McCurley-Ingram, Southeast Region Director; Donna Siburt, Northeast Region Director; Evelyn Green, Treasurer; Wendy Sparks, Secretary and Executive Assistant; Keith Atkins, President-Elect; Christina Forth, Immediate Past President; Marilyn Carter, Parliamentarian; and myself, Terry Ligon, President.

One of the changes we are making this year concerns our ADO office and the position of webmaster. The office will no longer be located in West Virginia and Wayne Ammons will no longer be an employee. (I do want to thank Wayne for all he has done for this Association.) We are in the process of looking at several management companies to take over the duties of the ADO office and the position of webmaster. We will make a decision at the Budget and Planning meeting, or soon thereafter. Please bear with us; the website may be slow getting updated over the next month but we will get this done.

The 2019 Board is busy preparing for the Budget and Planning meeting which will be held in Tulsa, Oklahoma, January 11-12. We will approve the annual budget and review the goals and plans of each of the committees. Please contact your Regional Director, region representatives, committee chairmen or any Board member, including me, with any ideas, suggestions or concerns.

I am honored to be "serving" as your President this year and I thank you for your support and your hard work for this Association. The key word here is "serving"; I do believe "If serving is below you, leadership is beyond you." I am here to serve you and hope in doing so I will be an effective leader for you.

I do look forward to hearing from each of you and I am ALWAYS available by email, text or phone.

Let's have a great year in 2019!

ASSOCIATION OF
DESK AND DERRICK

January 2019

Happy New Years to the members of the New Central Region of the ADDC and thank you for your confidence in me to serve as your Region Director. My theme for this year is "The Key to Education is the Willingness to Learn".

My thanks also goes out to all of those who have served as Region Director before me.

Our club leaders for 2019 are as follows:

Butler County - Abby Johnson

Dallas- Barbara Chapman

Enid- Shelly McCool

Fort Worth - Judi Jones

Graham - Lanette Mills

Great Bend - Sharon Hiss

Liberal - Jamie Sabata

Lone Star - Pat Blanford

Oklahoma City - Jamie Gilmore

Red Earth - Teri Swarengin

Tulsa- Jill Klein

Wichita- Abby Bock

Wichita Falls - Rena Shaffer

Whether it is your first year or you are one of the seasoned Presidents please know that your willingness to serve is a great contribution to our association.

The first Central Region meeting will be held on April 11th - 14th, 2019 at the Aloft Hotel Bricktown in Oklahoma City. The OKC club has been working very hard to plan an entertaining and educational meeting for everyone.

The Friday night function will be one for the books. Entertaining field trips, seminars and speakers are sure to be enjoyed. The certification class is scheduled to be Accounting.

The board will be meeting in Tulsa on the 10th and 11th of this month to prepare for the new year at the Budget & Planning meeting. Please know that our goal is the betterment of the association and we are working to make it an organization you will continue to be proud to be a member of.

Please know that if you ever need anything from me I will make it a point to be there for you. Thanks again for your support and belief in me and know that I am here for you, the members of the "CENTRAL REGION".

"Greater Knowledge - Greater Service"

101 Years Ago.....

by Michael Evans

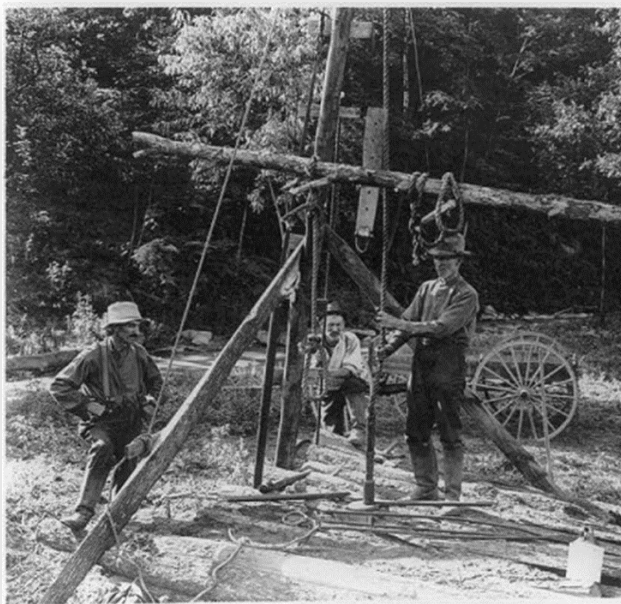

101 years ago a small operator decided to drill a well in hopes of becoming rich. He probably used all his money and borrowed the rest against whatever assets he had. His dreams were big. He decided to start the year out the right way by spudding his location on New Years Day. He had a cable tool rig and a couple of hardy hands to help him realize his dreams. Mules pulled a few wagons out to this location from Oklahoma City over 60 miles across fields and small trails. They probably departed in early December in 1917.

It only took about a week to shovel off the location and hand dig a mud pit. The rig went up in just 5 days. They had to chop down a few trees and cut them up for fuel. FINALLY, the process began: the 3 man crew picked the bit up and dropped it hundreds of times every day thru brutal cold of January, February and March. But the tents were warm and kept them dry during the rain and snow. The pounding continued on hour after hour with dedication through the terrible storms that spring offers in Oklahoma.

Then came summer. June, July and August. HOT. REALLY HOT. No A/C. No fans. Limited access to water and food. There are no restaraunts, no gas stations, and very few roads greater than a wagon trail, So most of their food they hunted or fished and occasionally a wagon would come with supplies. Then, in September, they probably ran out of money. The dream was shattered. The well was dry. They had made 3005 feet in 8 months. Tempers flared since it was very common to accept pay for success. When the well would gush in people would get paid. The crew may not have earned much since they too gambled on a big pay day at the end.

I could find no other well drilled by P Oil and Gas. It was a one shot effort to become wealthy and he risked it all. But whoever P was, he knew it was hard work and high risk and he did not hesitate. He was truly an oil man and he paid the price for that title. And this was just one cable tool well out of thousands drilled in Oklahoma before 1920.

thinking of you

We received a note from Kay Meyerhoff earlier this month. She had a light stroke the Saturday before Christmas and spent the holidays in the hospital. She was then moved to St. John's rehab facility. She has now returned to her home at Inverness Village. She says she has lots of help from her children and good friend, Barbara Ramussen. We're all so glad you are doing better, Kay!
