

Dear Members,

I am just so grateful we've made it to autumn! Even though we were spared our usual hot and muggy summer, fall is my absolute favorite time of year...bring on the sweaters, pumpkins and bon fires!

I know this year has been especially relentless on oil and gas companies and service providers in every sector. Each week bounces between good news with rig counts slowly increasing and heartbreaking news of mergers that will affect several of our friends and colleagues in Tulsa. Please reach out if you know of any open positions that we can share with our members.

Unfortunately, this past year a few of our sister Desk & Derrick Clubs across the U.S. have disbanded. If our Tulsa Club is to survive, we need your help! Our 2021 Board of Director elections should be held this month, but we have not had any nominees yet. Our Club has a rich history of very talented members who have answered the call, many with no previous experience, so it's a great organization upon which to cut your Board teeth! Please consider how you can contribute your time and ideas to keep our club soaring in the 20's! Contact me, or any Board member, with questions and see the position descriptions on page 4.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS for October 21! We welcome back Kristie Ferguson, President of KLF Geological Consulting, as our speaker. Kristie is one of our Club favorites and this promises to be a fun and energy filled presentation about her favorite subject...rocks!

Next month is our last member luncheon meeting of 2020. The November Industry Appreciation Luncheon will be November 18 with Kris Reynolds, Arrowhead Consulting's Senior Partner presenting on "Business Strategy." This will be a great talk for CEO's and company leaders, so be thinking now who you can invite to introduce to Desk & Derrick.

Be sure to check out the University of Tulsa's CESE schedule on pages 6-7 and an ADDC virtual educational opportunity on page 10.

Looking forward to being back at the Summit Club and seeing everyone soon. Until then, stay healthy and take care.

CHEERS!

Kristie L. Ferguson

President

KLF Geological Consulting, LLC.

“Let’s Get Back to the Basics”

From our history of the oilfield to the rocks that we like to find and what makes them so valuable!

Kristie Luchtel Ferguson provides over 25 years of technical and applied petroleum Geology experience in both conventional and unconventional plays throughout the world. She received her education in Geology (B.S) and Geologic Oceanography at Oklahoma State University and Humboldt State University and in Petroleum Geology at the University of Kansas (M.S.).

After several years with Exxon and ExxonMobil, she returned to Oklahoma with Samson Resources and then Newfield. Throughout her career, Kristie has held several technical and managerial roles. In 2013, she founded KLF Geological, LLC located in Tulsa. Kristie is very active at KLF Geological and is concurrently the Vice-President of Geology for Springbok Energy, located in Dallas.

Kristie is an active member of AAPG (HoD chair-elect, HoD delegate, Sec-ED), TGS (past president), TGS Foundation (Chairman), and the OSU School of Geology Advisory Board (Past Chairmen). Kristie is married to Stephen (Aggie, reservoir engineer), and they have two young sons, Hayden (12) and Leland (8). She loves to go to the field and collects way too many rocks!

Fundamentals of Titles, Deeds, Conveyances & Leases

October 28-29 (Houston), December 2-3 (Oklahoma City)

TIMOTHY C. DOWD

Attorney at Elias Books Brown & Nelson
Oklahoma City, OK

Mr. Dowd's primary area of practice is oil and gas law, including the rendering of title opinions, litigation, and drafting and negotiation of industry contracts. He has vast experience in oil and gas title examination, transactions and civil litigation representing oil and gas clients for over twenty-five years. Mr. Dowd has represented international and independent oil and gas companies and individuals. Additionally, Mr. Dowd has been a noted lecturer at over 100 seminars and CLE presentations.

Mr. Dowd is a past President of the Oklahoma City Mineral Lawyers Society as well as past Chairman of the Oklahoma Bar Association Mineral Law Section, and is a member of the legal committee of Interstate Oil and Gas Compact Commission, the Advisory Counsel to the Marginal Well Commission of Oklahoma and the Oklahoma State University-Oklahoma City Advisory Committee for the Center for Environment and Energy, and the author of the Chapter on Oil and Gas Titles in West Publishing Company's Oklahoma Real Estate Forms and Practice. Mr. Dowd has an "AV" Peer Review Rating by Martindale-Hubbell.

He received his B.A. from the University of Oklahoma and his J.D. from the University of Tulsa College of Law, plus is a noted lecturer for CLE presentations and seminars. And here's a little-known tidbit: Tim took sailing lessons recently in the British Virgin Islands!

This two-day course covers the basics in determining land titles and the ownership of the mineral interests, plus the fundamentals of the acquisition and development of oil and gas properties. Learn the basics of land titles, deeds and transferring oil and gas leases.

In two-days, the participants will:

- Learn the basics of land titles, deeds and transferring oil and gas leases
- Understand and locate pertinent parts of oil and gas leases and assignments
- Establish the ability to interpret deeds
- Recognize basic title issues
- Determine a proper reservation or exception in a deed
- Learn how to review an oil and gas lease
- Learn the important skills to determine change of ownership and who has the right to collect the monetary proceeds from a producing well
- Understand the basics of the oil and gas lease and the ownership of the oil and gas leasehold
- Be given selected problems/issues to transfer the knowledge gained onto real-world problems

This course receives 13.0 PDHs, 1.3 CEUs

ADDC UPDATES

Virtual Accreditation - ACCOUNTING

Because of COVID, ADDC was unable to host a certification class this year at convention. We have received approval from the board to offer the class, Accounting, virtually to our membership.

The class will be held November 14th and will take approximately 4 hours to complete depending on the number of attendees. There will be no charge for this class that is being offered, because we are not charging, this opportunity will only be open to our members.

If you are interested in signing up please send an email to me, pthompson@merrion.bz to be put on the list of attendees. Also please don't hesitate to reach out to me if you have any questions or concerns.

This Week in Petroleum History, September 28 to October 4

Date	Event
9/28/1945	President Truman claims America’s Outer Continental Shelf, “to encourage discovery and development of oil.”
9/30/2006	Bronze Roughnecks dedicated at Signal Hill, California near Los Alamitos No. 1 which in 1921 revealed California’s prolific Long Beach oilfield 20 miles south of Los Angeles.
10/1/1908	Ford Motor Company produces First Model T in Detroit. Between 1908 and 1927, Ford would build about 15 million Model Ts, each fueled by inexpensive gasoline
10/1/1942	Water Injection Project begins in East Texas. East Texas Salt Water Disposal Company drilled the first salt water injection well in the 12-year-old East Texas oilfield near the towns of Tyler, Longview, and Kilgore.
10/2/1919	William Grove Skelly incorporates Skelly Oil in Tulsa, Oklahoma. As Tulsa promoted itself as “Oil Capital of the World”, Skelly became known as “Mr. Tulsa,” thanks to his support for many civic causes
10/3/1930	East Texas Oilfield discovered on Widow Bradford’s Farm as part of the Woodbine formation, which would produce 5+ billion barrels of oil in coming decades.
10/4/1866	Oil Fever spreads to Allegheny River Valley. Just 15 miles from Titusville, PA the discovery at Triumph Hill sparked a wild, uncontrolled rush of new drilling.

Spectators gathered on the widow Daisy Bradford’s farm near Kilgore, Texas, to watch the October 3, 1930, “shooting” of the discovery well of what proved to be the largest oilfield in the lower-48 states.
